Collecting and processing personal data

This Privacy Policy regulates the relations between JSC APS Group and natural persons or legal entities (hereinafter 'You', 'Your') as far as supplying and processing personal data.

JSC APS Group processes Your personal information under the conditions that are the subject of this Privacy Policy.

The Privacy Policy is in force upon Your agreement to the Terms of Service, in particular upon checking the box 'I agree to the Terms of Service and processing of my personal data' when filling out the contact form at the Website.

JSC APS Group secures the right to change this Privacy Policy at any time without any special notice. If You continue to use the Services of APS Group after publication of any amendments to the Privacy Policy, You are considered to have agreed to these amendments.

By sending us the form and checking the box 'I agree to the Terms of Service and processing of my personal data' You confirm Your decision to supply Your personal information and give Your voluntary consent (that is considered written) to processing it, with the exception of the cases under paragraph 2, article 9 of the Federal Law "On personal data" (of Russian Federation).

You are held accountable when supplying other person's data.

Personal information supplied when using the website apsfood.ru is used for:

- consulting the manager on Your question
- making a commercial agreement and/or supplying a service
- customer service assessment, traffic monitoring and services' rating
- marketing solutions
- observation of this Privacy Policy
- securing Your, our, our customers' and third parties' rights under the Russian Federation Law

JSC APS Group does not share Your personal information with third parties.

APS Group secures its right to provide personal data to competent agencies in some cases under the Russian law when it serves to defend other individual's freedom or health or save their life.

APS Group is entitled to use Your personal data for sending e-mail notifications and special offers, creating and implementing commercial agreements, as well as providing services.

When You agree to the Privacy Policy by checking the box "I agree to the Terms of Service and processing of my personal data" while filling out the contact form at the Website, You give Your consent to processing of Your personal data.

You accept that under the Federal Law of Russian Federation "On personal data" APS Group has the right to keep and process (including automated processing) any data related to Your personal information; more specifically, APS Group has the right to collect, systemize, accumulate, keep, specify, use, share (give), depersonalize, block and delete personal data You supplied.

Processing of Your data is mixed: it is either transferred across the APS inner network or across the Internet.

APS Group takes the responsibility to keep your personal data private and safe while processing.

If You withdraw Your consent to processing Your data, APS Group will delete Your data and will not use it afterwards.

In the cases under the Federal Law of Russian Federation "On personal data" processing of one's data is illegal without their written consent. When You agree to the terms of this Privacy Policy by checking the box "I agree to the Terms of Service and processing of my personal data" while signing up, You thereby give Your written consent to processing Your data.

Consent to collection and usage of information

When You address us as the user of our Website, we ask You to supply Your personal information that will be used to answer Your call and for further cooperation as well as for other purposes enlisted in this Privacy Policy.

Your name/name of Your company, phone number, e-mail, region and some other information about You are all put in the contact form.

By providing Your personal information You voluntarily agree to collection, usage and disclosure thereof. While not contradicting the above statement, we can ask for confirmation of Your consent from time to time in the process of collecting, using or disclosing Your personal data under certain circumstances. Sometimes Your agreement is implied through Your cooperation with us if the purpose for collection, usage or disclosure is evident and You supply the data voluntarily.

Occasionally we may update You on new products, services and events, but You can optionally refrain from getting this information. You can unsubscribe from all our emails or turn off any notifications of the above-written purposes through contacting us and confirming that You do not want to receive such information anymore.

Data disclosure

We will disclose Your information to third parties only in line with Your instructions or in case there is such a necessity in order to provide You a certain service, or for other reasons under the Russian Law. We do not sell, share or disclose Your personal information without Your prior permission with the exception of some cases under the Law of Russian Federation.

Aggregate (depersonalized) data

Your personal information can also be employed to get Aggregate data for inside usage or for exchange with other parties on optional basis. Aggregate data means data that has been cleared of any unique information (without some extra information it is impossible to trace this data to an individual/company) that enables potential identification of customers, final users or pages they visited and that has been changed or grouped to get general anonymous information. Your identity and personal information will be stored in the Aggregate data anonymously.

Cookies and logging

We use cookies and log files to track user information. Cookies is small data distributed by the web-server through Your web-browser and stored on Your computer's hard drive. We use cookies to track webpage variations the visitors see, to count the number of clicks a user makes on each variation of the page, to monitor traffic and to assess the service settings' popularity. We will use this information to provide You relevant data and services. This information also assures us that the users see exactly the page they expect to see when they use the same URI and that lets us know how many times users click on certain links.

Personal data protection

In personal data processing APS Group takes all the necessary measures (legal matters, management solutions, technical measures) to protect the data from any unauthorized access, from being deleted, changed, blocked, copied, granted or shared, as well as from any other illegal actions.
